SIES SOP Star Awards 2022

The SIES SOP Star Awards were instituted in the year 2017 to recognise the talent among the Packaging Sector for its continuous efforts in Innovation / Creativity / New Developments across various product segments such as Beverage, Food, Health & Personal Care, Pharma among others.

The 6th Edition of the SIES SOP Star Awards this year saw a host of new developments in the entries submitted with majority coming from the packaging material manufacturer and the converter segments. The award categories in SIES SOP Star Awards are aligned with the WorldStar categories to simplify the application process for winning companies to participate in WorldStar Awards. In addition, sustainability parameter has been made an integral part of each category instead of making it a separate category like the previous years.

The principal aspects of judging included Packaging Functions; Convenience; Sales Appeal-On-Pack Branding / Marketability; Design / Ergonomics; Quality of Execution; Sustainability; Cost Reduction / Economy of material and Cost saving and Creativity and Innovation.

Health & Personal Care category, closely followed by Packaging Materials & Food continue to drive developments in packaging majorly focussing on design, ergonomics, convenience, and sustainability.
